Chapman Entertainment

www.chapmanentertainment.co.uk

Formed in 2002, Chapman Entertainment specialises in the creation, production and licensing of children's entertainment properties. The first two properties developed and produced at Chapman Studios is Fifi and the Flowertots and Roary the Racing Car, both of which have gone on to become global brand successes. There is a raft of new projects under way at Chapman Entertainment including Rah Rah the Noisy Lion and Little Charley Bear which launch in the UK on Cbeebies in 2011.

Roary the Racing Car

Roary the Racing Car follows the adventures of Roary, a bright, cheeky and energetic single-seater racing car, filled with boundless enthusiasm and curiosity, which often drives him straight into trouble! He learns from his mistakes as he speeds through life at Silver Hatch race track with his racing car friends.

Fifi and the Flowertots

Fifi and the Flowertots, follow the life of Fifi Forget-Me-Not, who lives in an enchanting garden-filled world called Flowertot Garden. Designed to inspire, entertain and amuse, Fifi and her friends go about their everyday lives covering themes such as friendship, the environment, creativity, music and imagination.

Little Charley Bear

Little Charley Bear is a contemporary, gently paced pre-school show that inspires creativity, discovery and imagination. Under the watchful eye of his friend the narrator, Charley Bear leads the show and takes the viewer on adventures through his imagination. "It's amazing what you can do with your imagination".

Rah Rah the Noisy Lion

Rah Rah the Noisy Lion is a noisy pre-school series about Rah Rah and his friends from the Jingly Jangly Jungle! With help from the audience Rah Rah and his friends learn to figure out that they can solve mysteries and go on adventures by using their developing communication skills.
