

Global Partner

intercontinental
licensing ltd.

BOOTH 4411

Intercontinental Licensing
www.intercontinental-ltd.com

Intercontinental Greetings Ltd was founded by George Medina who started the company selling the reproduction rights of designs to Greeting Cards companies in Europe and then expanded to almost all major countries around the world. The company, based in New York City grew and employed a network of Regional Managers and Sub-Agents and has more than hundreds of established accounts. Intercontinental Greetings has now evolved through the years of Licensing activities, created a Division, Intercontinental Licensing, dedicating its resources to Licensing Activities ranging from Art Licensing to Character Licensing, and now a co-producer to an Animation Series called Dinoville. Some of the long term licensors are Simon Elvin Ltd of UK, Ackermann Calendar Publishing in Germany, Sjatun Art Publishing in The Netherlands, Hanadeka of Japan, Wiz Entertainment of Korea, Giordano Studio of New York, and the list goes on.

Hanadeka™

Back by great success of Hanadeka™ "Funky & Hilarious" looks of Puppies & Kittens, it has generated strong interest in extending Hanadeka™ looks with humor interactive sketches which is entitled "Doodles". This formula has caught up in Europe and is now rapidly spreading across the ocean. A great new addition to the Hanadeka Club Range of images from Cows, ducks, frogs, chickens, pigs, baby seal to even cubs!

Marilyn Robertson

With a vast knowledge in textile design and illustration Marilyn Robertson has fused the worlds of fashion and art and put forth visually alluring collections, namely The Collection by Marilyn Robertson, and Catitudes. Demonstrating her passion for fashion, The Collection by Marilyn Robertson is created in Glamour and Fashion, portraying Ladies in Styles.

Catitude

Catitude is a witty, whimsical collection of an "Elegant Cat" combines both Styles with a touch of "Attitude" and Elegance, and a bit of sass to entice onlookers. Each design is more purrrrfect than the next, which makes every image suitable for a variety of applications.

Greg Olsen

Born and raised in Idaho, Greg Olsen was blessed with very supportive parents who always encouraged him and provided him opportunities to pursue his passion of art. Over the years, he has many outstanding paintings in Religious and Inspirational fine art of which he publishes Prints either in limited edition or open edition. Also he has painted a line of Children portraying them in the world of Fairy Tales and Fantasy, in powerful imaginations and more.

Dinoville

Dinoville is a village in a small island where Dinosaurs of different races, types and colors trying to live together in harmony. They are very colorful, cute, with lots of fun and are always curious of modern gadgets or "Junk" from the civilization. The first season will be a series of 52 episodes of 11-minutes. Co-production offers are welcome.